COMPETITION OUTLINES

WORDS OF WELCOME

Sergey Soloveychik
President
European Judo Union

Dear Judo Friends,

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you all to Gran Canaria for what has become one of the most important events on the EJU calendar.

With growing numbers each year, our veteran participants continue to demonstrate “spirit over muscles,” and an exceptional degree of high level involvement in competitions such as this. These senior judoka are widely respected in the Judo community and beyond, not only for their commitment, but also for their ability to lead healthy and fulfilling lives through their participation in and practice of Judo.

These championships would not have been possible without the support and highly competent skills of the Royal Spanish Judo Federation, the Island of Gran Canaria and all their staff and volunteers. To them I extend my most sincere thanks for their efforts. I also want to take this opportunity to wish all the participants the very best of luck and, to all spectators, a most enjoyable stay.

Juan Carlos Barcos Nagore
President
Spanish Judo Federation

Dear Judo Friends,

I have the pleasure to extend the Royal Spanish Judo Federation's and my personal welcome to all the guests and participants of the Kata and Veteran European Championships in Las Palmas de Gran Canaria (Canary Islands), Spain.

After the organization of the World Kata and Veteran Championships in Málaga in 2014, Spain has the honour to host once more two high level European sporting events in a new Spanish city, Las Palmas de Gran Canaria. Its privileged culture and location create a distinctive character resulting from the mix of Europe, America and Africa offering sun, sea, historic legacy and high level sporting events with strong vocation for hospitality and good quality of infrastructures. This is a great opportunity for the athletes to test themselves in a challenge that involves the best European Experts and Veteran.

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to the President of EJU Mr. Sergey Soloveychik, for the continuous support and confidence of EJU towards our Federation.

My special thanks goes to all partners, sponsors and to all those who have worked hard and with great enthusiasm to organize this European Kata and Veteran Judo Championships.

Finally, I would like to wish all the participants the best results and many exciting days full of Judo and fair competition.
